We crave news—
"Is there anything whereof, it may be said, See, this is new? It hath been already of old time, which was before us."
Life repeats itself again.

Uncle Sam extends the hand of brotherhood to China, in the spirit in which we returned the Boxer indemnity of old time, which was before us."

One needs to go back only 30 years, to the power house fire, which halted the old cable cars on the Avenue "in their tracks," to find a parallel for the tie-up of the city yesterday, and the tragic death of a man who pulled the wrong switch, by a bolt of lightning of which he was his own Jupiter. Essentially there is no difference between blowing out a candle and cutting off the "juice."

Miami makes a bid for the Democratic national convention. Having survived a hurricane it probably feels that it can stand anything.

There's nothing new in the split in Aimee's church—this town is full of churches that have split off from some other church, and so is every other town. Thus are churches and religions made.

Mr. Ruth knocks the hopes of the home team clean over the right field fence. Shakespeare never repeats, but the Babe does. Babe is greater than Bill, and if he did not repeat he would not draw such big wages. If Shakespeare had repeated more nobody can estimate what his royalties might have been. Little children, let us emulate Mr. Ruth.

American soldiers on service in the Orient must learn the Chinese language. Too many shirts have been getting lost when called for on Saturday night.

Folks down in the caw, cotton and cane country get used to the Mississippi just as the peasants who live on the slopes of Vesuvius get used to a shower of hot lava. Floods like this were an old story when Mark Twain was memorizing one set of snags on the way down, and another set on the way up, it was an old story when De Soto found it, and an old story when the first Chinaman, metamorphosed by war-paint and feathers, pitched his first tepee on its banks. The Father of Waters is venerable enough to know better, but like some people with gray hair he likes to go on the loose and act like a kid. It'll take many a thunderstorm to bring back to earth the water that is being wasted down there now.

The Daughters of 1812 make a pilgrimage to Fort Washington, but the Daughters of 1814 don't like to think about the place. As a fort the British found it very useful in capturing Alexandria.

The inventor of television has perfected a new light that can penetrate a London fog. This is said to be the first light ever made out of Harveyized steel.

We fear the office cat will not admit that "noctovision" is a new invention.

Some people won't be satisfied with what the inventors are doing until they can examine a yard of silk by television and have it sent up c. o. d. by radio.

Famous murder trial may be halted again because of the discovery that the wife of one of the jurymen looks like Mrs. Snyder. A wise man would have kept this a secret.

Mr. William H. Stayton rushes breathlessly into print with the inside low-down that Mr. Wayne B. Wheeler favors Roy Haynes and dry civil service snappers. Exclusive news nowadays is sometimes startling.

Man has been chased out of the cigar store, the press club, the barber shop, the shoe-shine parlor, the gymnasium and the Turkish bath, and if we had saloons today the high-heel slipper would monopolize the brass rail, and yet Wall Street thinks it can keep woman out of the Stock Exchange. Some people never learn anything by experience.

The head of the Harvester trust takes a new wife unto himself. "Blest be the tie that binds."

We note that the London society girls are right up to snuff.

If Dr. Bandesen is right when he tells the girls that the way to live to be a hundred is to wear as few clothes as possible we know one who is going to break Methuselah's longevity record.

The radio boldly censors an address by Victor Berger that it doesn't like—and neither do we—and if it can get away with this sort of despotism the American people are in a fair way to lose their most priceless heritage, the freedom of speech.

EMPLOYEE DIES, LIGHT AND POWER CUT OFF BY FATAL MISTAKE

Three Explosions Follow When Benning Operator Pulls Live Switch.

PLANT IS HELPLESS MORE THAN HOUR

Capital Much Inconvenienced by Wreck of Machinery; Spraker Human Torch.

James G. Spraker, an electrician at the Potomac Electric Power Co., was fatally burned yesterday afternoon and the city was without light and power for more than an hour when he pulled by mistake a "live" switch at the Benning power plant.

Spraker died in Casualty hospital at 7:30 o'clock, a little more than five hours after he was taken there.

Three explosions followed the error. Immediately the city's lights were extinguished, elevators stopped between floors, street cars stranded and hundreds of minor inconveniences wrought to the city at a time when it could most easily suffer them.

Spraker had pulled two "dead" switches. When he pulled the third, however, a short circuit occurred, causing a terrific explosion, which tore through the oil switches, disconnecting boxes holding an enormous voltage. This resulted in two other major explosions which blew the housing from the boxes inclosing the apparatus and seriously damaged the machinery of the plant.

Like Lightning Flashes.

This entire occurrence was comparable to a series of lightning flashes. Spraker's clothing was ignited by the flames of the first flash. He ran, a living torch, about 15 feet down an alley leading to the box, and dropped in a heap. John Bergling, an electrical mechanic at the plant, threw an overcoat around him and smothered the flames, which had literally burned the clothes from his body.

He was taken to Casualty hospital. On arriving at the hospital, it was necessary to carry him up the stairs to the second floor, since the elevator, as a result of the occurrence, was not running.

The explosions occurred at exactly 1:50 o'clock, and instantly were felt over the whole of Washington, in more than a dozen nearby Maryland towns and as far as Baltimore.

Cars Brought to Standstill.

The cars of all electric lines entering Washington, as well as all local cars of the Washington Railway & Electric Co., were brought to a standstill in their tracks, and very often it happened to be right in the middle of a street crossing.

The cars of the Washington, Baltimore & Annapolis Railway Co. were stranded in Baltimore and all along the line. The cars of the Washington

Radio Company Halts Speech by Berger

New York, April 24 (By A. P.).—The broadcasting of a speech by Representative Victor Berger (Socialist), of Milwaukee, Wis., at the celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the Jewish Daily Forward, was stopped today in the midst of a statement charging that capitalism controlled the American press, radio and schools.

Part of Mr. Berger's speech had been broadcast when the microphone was taken away. At station WJZ it was said that the broadcasting was stopped "because the time allowance had expired."

Hotel on State Line For Divorce Seekers

San Francisco, April 24 (By A. P.).—Nevada's new quick-and-easy divorce law has inspired a group of San Francisco hotel men to build a hotel on the California-Nevada line, in the Lake Tahoe country.

Half of the inn will be on California soil and half on Nevada. A white line will be painted on the floor of the place designating the boundary line, so that feet may not wander out of the territorial limits of the sage brush State.

Thirty cottages will surround the main hotel, fifteen in California and the others in Nevada.

Bellanca Airplane Breaks In Flight With 2 Girls

Spectators Horror-Stricken as Landing Strut Parts; Chamberlin Wraps One Child in Blanket and Gets Machine to Earth Safely.

Mineola, N. Y., April 24 (By A. P.).—Five thousand spectators were horror-stricken when the landing gear of the Bellanca monoplane fell apart as it took off from Curtiss field this afternoon with two young girls as passengers. Seven planes immediately followed and succeeded in signaling the Bellanca mechanic, but after an hour's efforts to repair the broken strut, the plane was forced to land on Mitchell field, where it careened, smashing the left wing, no one was injured.

Clarence D. Chamberlin, who has an even chance with Bert Acosta of being the pilot to attempt to guide the plane to Paris within a few days, took up the plane on a test flight, accompanied by a mechanic and the two girls, Aloise Levine, 9, and Grace Jones, 15. Aloise is the daughter of Charles A. Levine, head of the company owning the plane, and Grace is the daughter of Ralph Jonas, president of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce.

The breaking of the landing gear was caused by the shearing off of a bolt which fastened the left side of the landing gear to the plane.

After examining the damage, G. M. Bellanca, designer of the plane, and Mr. Levine announced that it would not delay the start of the proposed transatlantic flight, for which next Thursday had been set as a tentative date.

Early in the afternoon close to 5,000 persons witnessed the christening of the plane "Columbia" by Aloise Levine. After the ceremony Chamberlin took the plane up on the trial flight. Cheering of the huge throng was changed to cries of horror when flight observers on the field noticed that the left landing gear strut on the ascending plane was broken. With this apparatus disabled, they pointed out, it would be certain death for Chamberlin and his passengers to try an ordinary landing.

A signal from officers on the field and seven airplanes whirled from their hangars, and swept into the skies to warn Chamberlin of the danger. However, the breaking of the landing gear was caused by the shearing off of a bolt

DU PONT IS RECONCILED, ELOPERS, HERE, DECLARE

Everything Is Simply Lovely After Communication With Parent, Morgan Says.

DOUBTED IN WILMINGTON

Despite word from Wilmington, Del., yesterday that Philip F. du Pont was maintaining a cold outward indifference toward the elopement of his daughter with Richard Dorset Morgan, young Philadelphia office manager, the bridegroom, ensconced with his wife in a suite at the Mayflower hotel here, last night declared there is no rift in the family because of the secret marriage.

"We have communicated with Mr. du Pont, and everything is simply lovely," Morgan said last night. "We will leave Washington by motor tomorrow. No, we haven't decided just where we will go, but we will motor around for a week or two anyway, before we return home."

The couple arrived in Washington Saturday, they said. Yesterday they passed with intimate friends, and spent last evening at the Chevy Chase Country club.

All of the members of the du Pont clan approved the match, except the father, according to word from Wilmington. Yesterday he calmly carried out plans previously made for a yachting trip. Mrs. du Pont was said to have entirely recovered from the shock received when first told of the marriage.

Mrs. Johnson Morgan, mother of the bridegroom, was reported to have passionately denied yesterday suggestions that her son had devoted a thought to his bride's financial prospects.

In a note to his mother, Morgan wrote, "My first regret is that we did not do this long ago. And my second regret is in hurting you." Mrs. Morgan had favored postponing the marriage till June 25, the date agreed to.

Miami Pledges Fund; Invites Democrats

Miami, Fla., April 24 (By A. P.).—Miami formally entered the competition for the 1928 Democratic national convention today with formal invitations telegraphed national committee members and $250,000 pledged toward the project. The telegrams, authorized at a civic mass meeting, set forth the city's facilities for entertaining delegates and the attendant throng; chamber of commerce officials were authorized to pledge whatever additional amount the committee may desire to bring the convention here.

Rip Tide Claims Life; Four of Family Saved

St. Petersburg, Fla., April 24 (By A. P.).—Caught by a rip tide and heavy wind in the southern pass at Pass-a-loutre Island, W. Warner Timberlake, 16 years old, of Chicago, drowned while attempting to swim in the swirling channel this afternoon.

Quick work on the part of three unidentified men in forming a human chain into the eddying waters, saved the youth's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Timberlake, a younger brother, David, and his grandmother.

GEN. TANG, OUSTED BY HANKOW, REBELS; MOVING ON CHANG

Attack Against Peking's Ruler Was Directed by Chiang, Is Belief.

UNION PICKETS FORCE LANDING OF MARINES

Feng, "Christian General," Is Said to Have Revolted Against Hankow.

Shanghai, April 24 (By A. P.).—The military situation is the all important one at the present moment, finances and politics being relegated to the background. After the issuance of a mandate by the Hankow government that hereafter military affairs would be under control of a committee, Gen. Tang Sun-Tao, whose dismissal the mandate involves, rebelled and ordered an army of five columns to advance into Honan, along the Hankow-Peking railway, to attack Marshal Chang Tso-Lin's forces. It is reported that Tang is under the orders of Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, commander in chief of the moderate nationalist (Kantones) forces.

It is evident that Marshal Chang, who controls the Peking government, is taking Tang seriously and he has ordered Gen. Han Ling-Tsung, Manchurian commander, to Honan with a large force to repel Tang.

One Division Yields.

A news agency dispatch from Tientsin says that Gen. Chang Kuei-Yao, commander of the Sixty-seventh Shanghai division, has surrendered to Chiang Kai-Shek. Chang Kuei-Yao's troops are now in Anhwei province. Gen. Chiang promises to protect the Shanghai division commander's extensive properties in Kiangsi province.

The situation between Chinkiang and Yangchow is easing. Gen. Chiang has been sending forces to Chinkiang for some days in preparation for an advance across the river to Yangchow.

Chinese sources are confident that a deal soon will be consummated, whereby Gen. Sun Chuan-fang, one of the northern commanders and original defender of Shanghai, may possibly accept Gen. Chiang's recent offer to make him northeastern defense commissioner for the Cantones.

The landing of 50 marines at Hankow Thursday night by the U. S. S. Isabel, flagship of the Yangtze patrol, was due to Chinese pickets attempting to remove three Americans connected with the Standard Oil Co.'s office and take them to the headquarters of the general labor union. The excuse given by the pickets was that headquarters wished to question the men and learn their names.

The foreigners at present in Hankow are 114 Britons, 68 Americans, 14 Frenchmen, 46 Italians, 223 Germans, 14 Belgians, 10 Russians, 184 Indians and 10 Danes. All stay at the water front at night, as much tension still exists in Hankow. There are approximately 45 foreign ships of war at Hankow to protect foreign lives and business.

LOS ANGELES ENDS VOYAGE TO FLORIDA

Admiral Moffett and Others Land After 20-Hour Trip Down Coast.

Pensacola, Fla., April 24 (By A. P.).—Moored fast to the tender vessel Patsy, the dirigible Los Angeles tonight had completed its cruise from Lakehurst, N. J., to the Pensacola naval base, after making the long trip down the Atlantic seaboard in little more than 20 hours.

The mooring time was 6:40 p. m., and Admiral W. A. Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics, Commander Carlisle Sulton, both passengers and many of the ship's officers and men came ashore. Admiral Moffett plans to inspect the air station while here and the new flying field.

The time of return to the home base will depend on weather and other conditions, Commander Sulton said. The hour for departure will probably be determined tomorrow.

FLOOD DEATHS EXCEED 200, MAJOR, AT SCENE, REPORTS; 15,000 TRAPPED, FOODLESS

Boats Must Be Had at Once to Save Many Facing Drowning.

DANGER OF EPIDEMIC EXISTS IN WIDE AREA

People in Two States Warned to Flee for Lives; Many Beyond Aid, Is Fear.

Vicksburg, Miss., April 24 (By A. P.).—With 15,000 people marooned without food or water in the Mississippi delta district by the Mississippi flood, Adjutant Gen. Green issued an appeal today to the country for boats and more boats to take them out.

"Small boats and motorboats from the people of the country must be furnished in this area if human lives are to be saved," said the statement, issued after Gen. Green had conferred here with Gov. Murphy and Lieut. Col. Charles H. Danforth, aviation officer of the Fourth corps area.

More than 5,000 refugees from Greenville and other points now are concentrated in Vicksburg and many others are en route from that section and from Louisiana and lower Mississippi delta regions.

Of the refugees 2,000 are negroes camped in National park, in national guard tents. They are being fed and given medical attention. Mumps have appeared among these refugees, but medical authorities are taking every precaution to prevent any serious outbreak of disease.

Epidemic Danger Faced.

Little Rock, Ark., April 24 (By A. P.).—Danger of an epidemic in the wake of the flood exists, unless extreme precautions are taken, reports to the Arkansas national guard headquarters here indicated today. Health and sanitary conditions in the refugee camps throughout the State, however, are gradually improving, the reports declared that at Forest City and Wynne, where outbreaks of disease had occurred, the situation was being brought under control.

With three naval seaplanes augmenting the air forces of the Arkansas national guard and commercial planes and numerous rescue parties in small boats, families were brought food, clothing and medical supplies.

The recession of flood waters which is occurring on most of the principal inland streams is leaving extremely unsanitary conditions, and preventative measures were being taken, by having airplanes deliver typhoid antitoxin and smallpox vaccine to all refugee camps throughout the State. Vaccination is compulsory in refugee camps and public schools.

Told to Flee for Floods.

Urgent warnings for all people living between Greenville and Vicksburg, a stretch of nearly 100 miles, in the path of the flood, were being brought (CONTINUED ON PAGE 5, COLUMN 5.)

Snakes Add to Perils; Rescue Ship Damaged

Wayside, Miss., April 24 (By A. P.).—Marooned several days on a levee at the head of a narrow drainage canal which extends from the Mississippi into this village, 500 persons today were taken off by the steamer Wabash, which tore away its guard rails in negotiating the channel to make a heroic rescue.

Three of the refugees died before succor arrived. Another was critically ill from snake bite. All were hungry and thirsty, with virtually no food supplies and no water except that dipped from the raging flood.

Wayside is a small settlement a mile off the river and about 12 miles south of Greenville. The refugees had been on the levee since flood waters swept over the village from the crevasse at Stops Landing, 30 miles to the north. Their refuge was shared by innumerable snakes, which added to their perils.

One man pulled out his high boots today to find one occupied by a water moccasin, which bit him. He was treated with crude remedies and was given medical aid on the arrival of the Wabash.

NONE CAN EXAGGERATE SITUATION, SAYS BAKER

Red Cross Relief Director and Hoover Will "Go the Limit," Backed by Coolidge.

Memphis, Tenn., April 24 (By A. P.).—"It is impossible to exaggerate the gravity of this situation," Henry M. Baker, director of flood relief for the American Red Cross, declared today in outlining plans for relief work.

"From a relief standpoint, the situation is in excellent shape," he added. "Food, clothing and camp facilities are now moving into the area rapidly. Thirty-two big river steamers and approximately 200 smaller craft are in operation, all in touch with headquarters here by wireless."

"The staff which will arrive here tomorrow to assist in the work includes official representatives of the War, Navy and Commerce departments, the veterans' bureau, the coast guard and the public health service, each with blanket authority from the President to go the limit in relief work."

Director Baker will confer here tomorrow with Secretary Hoover and the others detailed for flood waters who will arrive in the afternoon from Washington. A program will be mapped out and then Mr. Hoover will depart on a trip of inspection down the Mississippi to make a careful study of the necessities of the situation.

(By the Associated Press.)
Six coast guard patrol boats were ordered to the Mississippi flood area from the Gulf of Mexico late last night. The vessels, all of the 75-foot type, were expected to reach New Orleans in the morning and then proceed to the Memphis section for rescue and relief work.

Coast guard headquarters also reported advices from Chicago stating that men and life boats were being sent to the stricken area by rail.

Greek Officers Held As Revolt Plotters

Athens, April 24 (By A. P.).—Two suspects, Pangalos officers, Gen. Papadonannou and Col. Valsamakes, have been arrested in connection with the reported revolutionary plot. Other arrests are imminent.

Family of Five Meets Death.

Little Rock, Ark., April 24 (By A. P.).—A family of five—father, mother and three children—were drowned today near Kelso, when their wagon was swept into a swollen bayou, according to reports received here from Kelso tonight. The family's name was Ballew, the report said.

The White river claimed another life today at Augusta. John Lampkin, a farmer, was drowned and his companion, John Barnett, saved himself by clinging to a tree for several hours after the boat in which they were riding was capsized by the swift river current.

U. S. Aids Peace in China By Stand Against Threats

Powers and Nationalist Government Now May Adjust Differences—All Groups Held Ready to Accept Kellogg's Note on Proposed Negotiations.

By ALBERT W. FOX.
By their refusal to join the other powers in threatening sanctions against the nationalist government of China, President Coolidge and Secretary of State Kellogg have apparently paved the way for peaceful negotiations to supplant war measures in adjusting differences between China and the powers.

Coincident with reports from Peking that American Minister MacMurray is not taking part in the discussions of the Peking diplomatic corps relative to a second identical note on the subject of sanctions to enforce the allied demands made upon Eugene Chen, the nationalist foreign minister, comes a statement from the Chinese nationalist headquarters that all groups in China are willing to enter into negotiations on the subject of the unequal treaties, which constitute the root of the present trouble. This, in effect, is an acceptance of Secretary Kellogg's note of January 27 proposing such negotiations. C. C. Wu, who is expected to share the duties of foreign minister with Eugene Chen, has made the suggestion for negotiations.

The refusal of the United States government to join the powers in threatening sanctions by a second identical note does not represent any vacillation or change of policy on the part of the President or Mr. Kellogg. On the contrary, it simply means that persistent efforts to cause a weakening or vacillating American policy have failed.

From the beginning Mr. Kellogg has been against sanctions in any form. He has never even authorized Mr. MacMurray to consider or discuss such a program. No amount of foreign pressure has caused a deviation in Mr. Kellogg's course, it is declared.

Chiang Kai Shek, who apparently dominates the situation in the Kuomintang, is entrusting Eugene Chen with the duty of carrying the negotiations with the powers over to the Nanking affair to their conclusion. Wu has so far not accepted the proposed post in the foreign service of the Kuomintang, but it is hoped that he will later.

DE VALERA APPEALS FOR U. S. SUPPORT TO CAUSE OF IRISH

Republican Leader Greeted by Ovation of 5,000 at Meeting in Capital.

GIVES REASONS FOR IRELAND'S CONDITION

Declares Great Britain's Yoke of Oppression Cause of Emigration.

Speaking before an audience of nearly 5,000 Irish sympathizers who greeted his every statement with vociferous demonstrations and flag waving, Eamon De Valera, Irish republican leader, last night appealed for a renewal of the sympathy and support Irish-Americans gave him cause five years ago.

De Valera was the principal speaker at a mass meeting last night in the Washington auditorium sponsored by the local chapter of the Association for the Recognition of the Irish Free State. De Valera's appearance on the stage in the auditorium was the signal for the audience to discard the more conventional way of greeting a distinguished visitor for a demonstration. More than two-score times during De Valera's address he was interrupted with enthusiastic cheering and hand clapping.

After the meeting nearly 1,000 persons crowded back-stage to personally greet the "president" who later left for New York.

De Valera took the occasion to "tell the truth about Ireland."

Not Prosperous, Claim.

"Ireland, today, is not as prosperous as the English would have it pictured," the Irish leader declared. "The best indication of conditions in Ireland can be learned from a survey of the records which show more than 280,000 Irishmen have left their country during the past five years because they could not find the means of livelihood in their native country," he added. "This condition," De Valera declared, "can be traced to the yoke of oppression which Great Britain has continued to place on the Irish."

England still maintains troops in Irish provinces, the speaker declared. "England has not evacuated its troops from Ireland and is ever willing to give an Irishman arms and ammunition if England is assured the Irishman will fight his fellow countryman," De Valera said.

The constitution of Ireland is a masterpiece of British diplomacy and not the handiwork of the free will of the Irish people, De Valera declared.

The speaker declared Ireland today is ready to repudiate its present constitution for one of its own making.

$6,500 Damage in Fire At Clarksburg, Md.

Damage estimated at $6,500 was caused to the home of Gen. Pooler, of Clarksburg, Md., and an adjoining store building owned by Roger Darby, when fire of unknown origin virtually destroyed both structures early yesterday.

The fire started in the store, spreading to Pooler's home. Further spread of flames was checked by the local fire department. Store supplies owned by Beverly Purdum, who was preparing to start business, were destroyed.

JUROR'S PARTY MAY DELAY SNYDER CASE

Notice of a remark attributed to Mrs. Charles B. Meisner, wife of the second juror to be chosen in the trial, told by reporters that her husband today had been chosen as a juror. Mrs. Meisner expressed strong antipathy to Mrs. Snyder and sympathy to her husband. Meisner was still in court.

When Justice Scudder was informed today Young had attended the theater party Friday night he said:

"I am glad this has been called to my attention at this time instead of a few days hence, when the jury would have already begun hearing testimony. It would be too late then."

It was learned tonight that detectives were attempting to find out if Young discussed the Snyder murder as he stood surrounded by friends—friends who hailed him as a hero because of his selection as foreman of the jury—in the theater lobby. Young and his attractive blonde wife in company with two other women were guests, with the Youngs, of George Rosenbaum, a press agent for a local theater.

"Invisible" Auto Lights To Pierce Fog Likely

London, April 24 (By A. P.).—Belief that the day may not be far distant when every vessel will carry an "invisible searchlight" to pierce fogs and every automobile a fog penetrating dark lamp is held by J. L. Baird, inventor of a device which he says will pierce thick fog or smoke.

Baird demonstrated his invention which he calls "noctovision" at his laboratory today and will fit a coastwise steamer with apparatus in June for further tests.

After witnessing tests today, Admiral Mark Kerr said that he thought the invention the biggest thing discovered for sea and air travel for a very long time.

The admiral, with others, saw Baird transmit a doll's features through an artificial fog produced by chemicals so thick that his assistants were choked in it.

700 DELEGATES ATTEND HOLY NAME CONFERENCE

WILLIAM WALSH IS HEAD

The Holy Name society of the archdiocese of Baltimore held its annual convention in the St. Stephen's parish hall yesterday. Approximately 700 delegates from the diocese attended the meeting which opened with solemn high mass at 11 o'clock.

At the annual election of the president of the society, held during the afternoon, William Walsh, from Cumberland, Md., was named to succeed Mark Alchoff, of Baltimore.

Thomas L. Woodlock, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, in addressing the assembly said the Catholic faith was in accord with the principles of the Constitution of the United States. "There would be no quarrel between the two as long as the Constitution remains unchanged," he stated.

The Rev. Ignatius Smith, of the Dominican Order of the Catholic university, delivered the sermon at the 11 o'clock service, assisted by the Rev. J. Rice and the Rev. Edward J. Nestor. Others who addressed the afternoon session included the Rev. Peter L. Iretton, spiritual director of the Baltimore section of the archdiocese of the Holy Name society; the Rev. St. C. Gavall of the Washington section; the Rev. Father Cuthbert, of the western Maryland section; and the Rev. P. E. Conroy, of the southern Maryland section. The Rev. T. V. Fitzgerald, pastor of the St. Stephen's rectory, extended greetings to the convention.

JEWISH SOCIETY WINS CENTER DRAMA PRIZE

"The Potboiler" Scores Triumph in City-Wide Community Contest.

The dramatic society of the Jewish Community center was yesterday awarded the prize for the best play presented in the recent intercommunity center contest. "The Potboiler," directed by the Rev. Harry S. Wender, president of the dramatic society, accepted the prize on behalf of the players.

The theater offered the prize-winning play "The Potboiler," by Alice Gerstenberg.

Two other one-act plays were presented. "The Impertinence of the Creature," a comedy, very delicately handled by Harry Wender and Yvonne Levy, and a playlet, "The Mayor and the Manure," by George Ade, in which the Temple Alumni Players earned some credit.

This contest, the first produced by the community center, included Milton Korman, Bernard Nordlinger and the Misses Ruth and Inez Leon.

De Pinedo Off to Put Plane Together Today

(By the Associated Press.)

PLANNERS CONSIDER SITE FOR EXTENSION OF BOAT YARDS

National Commissioners Survey Eastern Branch Land During River Tour.

ENGINEER REPORTS NEW DOCK PROJECT

Need to Preserve Space for Boathouses for Pleasure Purposes Considered.

Land along the Potomac river from the Pennsylvania avenue bridge to the Pennsylvania railroad bridge, extending back to Congressional cemetery, was considered by National Capital park and planning commissioners yesterday as a tentative site for extension of Potomac railroad yard, a project which has been doubled, according to W. D. Hudson, St. Louis railroad terminal expert employed by the National Capital park commission.

In consideration of the land while on a tour of inspection of water front plans, they were informed by Maj. Brodie, Somerville, United States district engineer, who arranged their river trip on the engineer boat Chicago, that space must be reserved just east of Anacostia bridge for a new United States engineer wharf, as the present one in West Potomac park will have to be abandoned.

Maj. Somerville also announced tentative plans for development of land from Buzzards point to the navy yard, and extending to Water street, as a dock for bulk cargoes, in view of increase of local shipping following deepening of the Potomac channel. The dock will have adequate railroad and warehouse facilities and will be connected by a trestle with the existing dock, and other heavy cargoes.

Anacostia Land Seen.

Undulating treatment for Anacostia land being reclaimed by the U. S. engineer's office for park purposes was recommended by the commissioners. Instead of flat, monotonous expanses, members believing that the broad rolling slopes of this future park would be a pleasing comparison with the hilly, forested expanses of Rock Creek Park. They were pleased to find the reclaimed land being farmed by the Department of Agriculture, as this will make it more adaptable for park planning.

Speedy removal of the old Aqueduct bridge in Georgetown as an unsafe and unsightly structure, marring the beauty of Key bridge was also advised at the meeting, and a new bridge, to be built of steel, replacing the masonry Long and railroad bridges was discussed. A double-deck bridge for railroad and vehicular traffic, or two bridges parallel to each other, or a tunnel under the river were mentioned as possible solutions.

A proper approach to the War college from Georgetown street in connection with development of that street under plans of the U. S. engineer's office, also was discussed. The plan would involve widening of the street from 80 to 100 feet to 160, with an inner boulevard for pleasure traffic, flanked by two utility roads, ways for commercial hauling. The widening could be accomplished with- out disturbance to the north side of the street, all improvement being accomplished on the government-owned land between the south side and the river.

HOWARD U. APPEALS FOR $500,000 FUND

Medical Department Endowment Completion Needed by Institution.

A special appeal for completion of the endowment fund for the medical department of Howard university was made yesterday by a committee of physicians headed by Dr. Charles A. Allen, who stated that the medical college requires an endowment of $500,000 to enable it to maintain its present standard of education. The fund is to be raised by contributions of $25,000 above student fees, a prerequisite for remaining in Class A of medical education. The fund has been raised $163,049 to date, of which amount colored citizens contributed $109,232. During May and June it will be necessary to raise $336,751 in order to secure $500,000 from the general education board.

Dr. Allen stated that the matter of endowment for the local institution was one which affected the white population as well as the colored, the present ratio of deaths, two colored to one white person, indicating the need for more colored physicians and other medical men engaged in campaigns of education in preventive measures.

Because of lack of accommodations, for several years the medical college at Howard university has admitted only one-third of its applicants. The new medical building, now in process of erection, will accommodate 600. It has been built and equipped at a cost of $500,000, only $50,000 of which remains to be raised. Both whites and colored students are under the direction of Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, university president. Secretary-Treasurer Emmett J. Scott, and Dean E. A. Ballou.

Virginia Youth Kept Alive 3 Days by Pumping Arms

Dislocation of Vetebræ Causes Partial Paralysis and Lungs Collapse; Friends, in Relays, Steadily Force Him to Breathe.

Roads, Va., April 24 (By A. P.).—The condition of Walter L. Booth, 18-year-old Troutville youth, whose lungs collapsed following an operation at a local hospital last Thursday, remains unchanged tonight and physicians said he still had a fighting chance to live. Artificial respiration, which for more than 72 hours has been administered by the raising and lowering of the boy's arms at the rate of sixteen to eighteen times per minute, is being carried on by friends and neighbors of the boy.

Booth's body is paralyzed from his waist down and while he retains his speech, his voice is weakened and the nurse who hovers over the head of his bed to catch any change of expression, occasionally leans closer to catch words faintly spoken through his swollen lips.

Booth has not lost consciousness and recognizes those about him. His attitude is cheerful.

Booth was injured in an automobile accident in May, 1926, when he was a part of a party of five riding in a small closed car when it overturned. For a time it was thought he was not seriously hurt, but later when a partial paralysis developed an examination was made and the dislocation of a vertebrae at the base of the skull was found. He was brought to a local hospital several days ago.

Immediately following the operation, Booth's lungs collapsed and artificial respiration was resorted to. As the boy's lungs ceased to function, a gradual paralysis of the lower part of the body began. Until today he is able to use only his voice and his eyes.

Gray Says Securities Were Put in Stove, Hyattsville Officer Declares.

Disappearance of negotiable bonds valued at $15,000 from the automobile of L. C. Somerville, of Hyattsville, Md., is believed to have been solved with the arrest of two youths and the recovery of burned fragments of the bonds.

The youths, arrested by Special Agent in Charge of the Hyattsville, Md., are Harvey Gray, 15 years old, Capitol Heights, Md., and Morris Haley, 20, who lives near Warren, Va. According to Gray, the two youths admitted that he and Haley were present when the bonds were stolen.

Gray told him the bonds were taken to a house in Capitol Heights and that Haley had placed the bonds in a stove when he found there. Gray recovered fragments of the bonds and the bag from the stove, he said. At his request Haley was arrested at his home near Warren.

Huntington, W. Va., April 24 (By A. P.).—Possibility that John Hickman, of Chillicothe, Ohio, might yet escape the electric chair for the slaying of Dan Garrett, Chillicothe policeman, loomed today as a result of an affidavit filed with authorities here by Mrs. Cora Booth, fortune teller, which indicates Hickman was not the slayer.

In a sworn statement before an attorney yesterday, Mrs. Booth said James Garrett committed suicide, she confessed to her that he killed Garrett. The attorney was understood to have forwarded copies of the statement to authorities at Columbus where Hickman's attorneys are attempting to save his life.

ZONE OF DEATH'S DECREED BY MEXICO IN JALISCO STATE

Noncombatants Given Ten Days to Flee; Airplanes Then Will Bomb Towns.

AREA TO BE RENDERED UNFIT FOR HABITATION

Merciless Reprisal Ordered for Train Attack; More Bishops Deported.

(Special Cable Dispatch.)

Guadalupe, April 24.—The rebels of the highlands of Mexico responsible for the terrible train attack last Tuesday near Ocotlán are to be fought from the sky. The entire upland district now is receiving notice by special courier that the noncombatants must concentrate in 15 designated places within ten days, after that date two full squadrons of airplanes will rain bombs upon the towns and villages of the whole rebel area.

The planes, which will operate from Yucuraco as headquarters, will be provided with bombs and tubes for shooting them, machine guns and airplane cannon. Troops already are concentrating for a grand move on the rebel territory. Minister of War Amaro and Gen. Penabaz, chief of the state troops, will command the movement, which will be one of envelopment.

Inhabitants Are Warned. Warning has been given through the press and special couriers that all within the prohibited zone, after ten days, will run the danger of annihilation, with the bombing of the doomed towns and villages. The airplanes will patrol the railway, and orders have been given them to treat as enemies all suspicious groups of people.

Daily reconnoitering into the rebel uplands is part of the military program. If the program is carried out, the whole rebel territory of the State of Jalisco will be rendered unfit for habitation, well in the North of Ireland. Under the guidance and protection of planes, the troops will advance through the rebel area, burning the rebel villages and making the country uninhabitable. Already Indian women have begun coming into the towns on the lowlands and are preparing to leave the uplands.

Tried Against Yaquis.

The same mode of procedure will be employed in Jalisco as was used in the last six months against the Yaquis. However, the army has a great advantage in Jalisco over that in Sonora, for it is much nearer to the base of supplies, the mountains are lower and the Indians are less used to warfare than the Yaquis. It is reported that the Indians are leaving the threatened area and moving into the states of Colima, Nayarit and Guanajuato.

The heaviest squad of airplanes ever used by the Mexican army is preparing to operate in the uplands, giving a completely new aspect to the war on the revolutionists of Mexico, and the people of the state are showing the greatest interest in the outcome of the campaign as indicative of the fate of numerous revolutionary organizations that have been operating along some 500 miles of rugged mountains.

More Bishops Exiled.

Laredo, Tex., April 24 (By A. P.).—Bishop Jose Maria Manriquez y Sarate, of Huejutla, Mexico; Archbishop of Puebla, and Monsignor Freyre, pastor of the Immaculate Conception cathedral, Puebla, ordered deported from Mexico on Friday night, arrived here today.

The bishop had been held a prisoner for a year in the state prison at Pachuca, Mexico, he said.

Archbishop Pedro Vera and Monsignor Freyre were taken from Puebla to Mexico City last Friday to appear before the minister of the interior as defendants in the case given out here today by the press.

The bishop was informed, they said, that President Calles had deemed it advisable to leave the fact that they were taken from Puebla to the government. They said they protested the order and denied any responsibility for the troubles.

The prelates said they were taken to the railway station and placed in second class coaches, despite the fact that many sympathizers at the station offered to pay for first class accommodations.

Bishop Manriquez said that he was made a prisoner in May of last year on a charge of sedition, but was never tried.

BELLANCA AIRPLANE BREAKS IN FLIGHT

The parents of the two children watched in agonized suspense while the plane circled the field for nearly an hour.

Chamberlain flew low and shouted he was going to land at Roosevelt field. Capt. W. H. MacMillen, took aloft a plane with the message "Land at Mitchell field" painted on it.

In preparation for the expected crash Chamberlain told the civilian girl to brace herself against the gasoline tank and wrapped a blanket about the older child to protect her head.

Heading down, Chamberlain brought the plane within a few feet of the ground, straightened out and landed. The plane sprung to life, the smashing wing and landing gear and scooped.

Davis May Start Flight To Paris From Pensacola

Norfolk, Va., April 24 (By A. P.).—Lieut. Comdr. Noel Davis, pilot of the "American Legion," one of the several planes now being groomed for a proposed transatlantic flight, may make his start for Paris from Pensacola, Fla., instead of New York, he indicated today.

Commander Davis, who is making a series of test flights at Langley field, said that while he was uncertain when he would hop off he preferred going on the full moon in May, which would make the time of his start about May 16.

In stating that he would start for Paris from Pensacola, if possible, instead of New York, Commander Davis said he considered the Florida city the best place to start from because he can get the benefit of warm, moderate winds until his plane is far out in the Atlantic.

TOLL OF DETROIT BLAST MOUNTS TO NINE KILLED

Full Number of Dead Never May Be Ascertained, Officials Believe.

BODY FOUND IN RUINS

Detroit, April 24 (By A. P.).—The number of known dead as a result of the fire that yesterday destroyed the five-story paint shop of the Briggs Manufacturing Co., auto body makers, stood at nine today, and earlier belief that some were killed outright was given partial substantiation when rescue squads recovered an unidentified body from the wreckage of the debris.

Five of the 30 seriously injured died in hospitals today. Two others succumbed within a few hours after being taken to the hospital.

With firemen pouring water on the wreckage of the paint shop building throughout the night and most of the day, thorough search of the debris still was impossible. While company executives said a partial check of pay roll records accounted for all but three or four of those not treated at hospitals, police and newspaper officials received inquiries from relatives of at least a dozen employees of the plant who had failed to return home today.

The known dead: James Gillan, Harry Mason, Ovid Shaw, William Henderson and Rose Hixon all negroes; John Goodrich, a white, 42; Andrew Wilkerson, 42, and an unidentified man.

Twenty three others still in hospitals, several probably will die, according to attending physicians.

Fire department officials expressed the belief that a search of the wreckage of concrete, brick and steel might be possible tomorrow. They expressed doubt, however, that the search would definitely disclose how many may have been killed outright. The terrific heat was such that any bodies in the center of the burning mass would have been incinerated.

Revised estimates of the property loss today placed it at between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000.

An all day investigation had developed no clues to the bombers to-night.

FINANCIAL DICTATOR NAMED BY CALLES; BUDGET IS REDUCED

Montes de Oca Given Full Power to Reorganize the Treasury.

CAN INCREASE DUTIES; CREDITORS MUST WAIT

Pani-Lamont Payments Will Be Met; Churches May Be Put on Sale.

(Mexico City, April 24 (By A. P.).—

Two avert a threatened treasury deficit President Calles has issued a decree conferring on Montes de Oca, secretary of the treasury, the powers of financial dictator.

The president orders a reduction of at least 50,000,000 pesos in this year's government budget, the utmost possible economy in all government expenditures and the strictest vigilance in collecting all taxes, duties and revenues due the government.

The decree provides that foreign debt payments under the Pani-Lamont agreement will be scrupulously fulfilled, but no increase in foreign debt will be made until negotiations with domestic creditors.

In order to raise revenues the decree authorizes Senor de Oca to sell on mortgage such government property or real estate as he deems necessary. This may involve the sale of Catholic church property, as for more than 50 years the government has considered such property nationalized.

The church authorities have not agreed to that theory.

The decree gives Senor de Oca absolute authority to fix and limit every government expenditure and places him in supreme control of the collection of every penny of government revenue, instead of having, as at present, the various taxes, fees and duties collected through other departments, and not directly through the treasury.

He may also order higher duties and taxes to an extent necessary to bring in the desired revenue.

No Appeal Allowed. The decree provides that there shall be no appeal from Secretary de Oca's appointments of the money each government department may spend, and no increase in these allowances will be granted in any circumstance.

The secretary is given full authority to reorganize the treasury department and the agencies of all the other departments which collect government funds in whatever manner he pleases to effect his absolute control of the nation's purse.

The secretary further is instructed to arrange with the Mexican banks to borrow money on the basis of an extension of payments due last year, this year and next year.

The decree orders suspension of payments upon the floating debt in cases where special agreements already have been entered into. Meanwhile, as with the Mexican banks, Senor de Oca can negotiate with general creditors for agreements regarding future payments. Thus it would be upon the floating debt that the government would rely for its money.

World's Most Palatial Train Built for Calles

Chicago, April 24 (By A. P.).—

The most palatial train ever built by the Pullman Co. today was turned over to Arturo Elias for delivery to President Calles, of Mexico, to replace the Presidential train which has been in service since 1897.

The five-car train, designed in architecture of old Mexico, cost $375,000 and will be initiated on its 3,000-mile, four-day maiden trip to Mexico City. Attached to it will be a sixth coach, built for the secretary of war of Mexico.

On the train will be Consul General Elias, ranking consul general and financial agent of Mexico, Senor Elias, and Arturo Elias, Jr., the presidential car, the most elaborate, with a suite for the president, one for his wife, and a reception room for the new mobile White House of Mexico. Other cars consist of an auto car, an escort car for the military guard, a staff car for aides of the president, and a dining salon and kitchen car.

Stayton Says Counsel Wants Acting Commissioner Made Permanent Official.

NO APOLOGY TO MAKE; REPLY TO ACCUSATION

Attack Called Smoke Screen of Opponents to Influence Mellon; Called Unethical.

(By the Associated Press.) Charges that Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, has been conducting "high-powered propaganda" to force Secretary Mellon to appoint Roy A. Haynes full-fledged prohibition commissioner instead of merely acting commissioner, which position he now holds, was made yesterday by William H. Stayton, national chairman of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment.

The charges, contained in a communication to President Coolidge, Secretary Mellon and other officials, declared that Wheeler had sent letters to State superintendents of the Anti-Saloon League urging them to flood the President and Secretary with letters and telegrams of congratulation on the appointment of Haynes as acting commissioner and expressing the hope that it would be made permanent.

Further Charges Made. Stayton further charged that Wheeler was attempting by the same practices to influence the President to appoint prohibition agents.

Stayton sent the President and Secretary copies of the letters said to have been written by Wheeler, not in criticism, he said, but "that the people may have knowledge as to whether their government is being administered by the Anti-Saloon League, or by the people, unhampered by self-seeking, meddling busybodies, or whether this has become a government of propaganda."

"The Wheeler letters," Stayton continued, "show that on four occasions the superior officers of Mr. Haynes in the Treasury Department have stated to him for removal from office and that on each occasion Wheeler has been able to learn of it in advance, and by appeal to the President, prevent the removal of the acting commissioner."

"We have only the kindest feeling for Mr. Haynes and Mrs. Kennedy, and all connected with the temple, but if they will read again the declaration of faith on which the church of the four square gospel was founded, and adhere to it, they will strip themselves of the protection of the Anti-Saloon League, and put on the each cloth and ashes of real repentance."

Mrs. McPherson conducted services at the temple today without a customary band, the musicians having followed the resignation of Nichols. A new choir, under the direction of the national president, occupied the platform. Mrs. McPherson made no comment on the break in her congregation during her morning sermon.

TREND OF BUSINESS HOLDS FAIRLY GOOD, DESPITE SETBACKS

Steel Output and Car Loadings, Though Low, Are Better Than Last Year.

OIL INDUSTRY IS SHAKEN BY CUT IN CRUDE PRICES

Auto Trade Moving Satisfactorily—Credit Conditions Become Easier.

New York, April 24 (By A. P.).—Although steel production and freight car loadings fell off last week, as compared with the week before, both exhibited higher figures than last year. In the case of steel, production of a new April record was heard, and the decline in freight traffic was practically all due to the slump in coal shipments from bituminous fields where there is a suspension of work. In all, the general trend of business appears to maintain an even tenor, with favorable indications balancing, not outweighing the gloomy item.

The condition of the oil industry, to be sure, was again shaken by price reductions in crude, but the slowing up of production, due to the caution of producers, and in some instances interference by storms and floods, has led to a belief in many quarters that the bottom of the downward movement is not far away.

Supported in Stock Market.

Support which oil shares have received in the stock market is a flavor of optimism to the outlook of operators who keep their fingers close to the pulse of the oil trade.

Automobile business has not maintained the rapid pace which was set last year, but nevertheless was moving along last week in a satisfactory manner, showing a steady increase over earlier weeks of 1927. Talk of new models continued to hold the attention of many in Wall street.

Building seems to be lagging behind last year's records, but a steady increase in activity is indicated by reports from various centers. First quarter construction fell only a little under the high figure set in the first quarter of 1926.

Bank clearings in the leading financial centers were slightly under the total for both the preceding week and the corresponding period of the year before. Bank debits also showed a nominal falling off from the few comparative weeks.

Credit conditions, which had stiffened somewhat with the increase of mid-month tax demands for funds, became easier again, and the lowering of the Bank of England discount rate from 5 to 4½ per cent resulted in a revival of hope in some quarters that the rate of the New York Federal Reserve Bank might be reduced at an early date.

More conservative opinion, however, took the position that no downward revision is to be expected until a definite business expansion rather than speculation in securities.

Retail trade naturally was retarded by heavy rains and floods in the middle West and by a recurrence of winter weather in some sections of the Rockies. Leading farm products had been quick to reflect the damage in these areas, cotton, wheat and corn advancing sharply in price. Live stock prices also moved upward with the exception of quotations for hogs, which declined to the lowest point in eighteen months.

The textile industry continued to return mixed reports. Cotton consumption attained record proportions and deliveries of raw silk to American mills reached a new peak in March. The official silk trade was doing a good volume of business, with orders for second-quarter delivery larger than a year ago. Wool manufacturing was still lagging behind largely because of a hesitant tendency of clothing and garments houses. Wool prices, however, were steady.

Texas & Pacific Rail Revenues $35,440,000

New York, April 24 (By A. P.).—More profitable business for 1926 than the year before is reported by the Texas & Pacific Railway Co., total operating revenues amounting to $35,440,000, an increase of $176,791. Freight revenue gained $506,148 to $26,556,341, but passenger revenue decreased $451,109 to $8,977,842. Net income was $3,927,340, an increase of $106,785.

During the year, 34 additional industries were located on the line, for which an aggregate of 474 miles of track was built. New equipment and improvements cost $858,350. Funder debt was reduced to $48,029 during the year, to $47,138,093.

Subscriptions are being accepted by the Bankers Trust Co., 10 Wall street, New York, who have been appointed agents of the company to receive such subscriptions.

WALL STREET BRIEFS

New York, April 24 (By A. P.).—Plans for the new middle West utility group by Fitch interests call for $16,000,000 bonds and stock to be offered on behalf of the holding company, Inland Power & Light corporation, of which $3,000,000 in bonds has been sold to a New York banking syndicate.

Since relinquishing his controlling interest in National Public Service corporation, Mr. Fitch is making Inland Power the nucleus of a large system in Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Michigan and Arkansas.

National Food Products corporation has acquired all of the stock of the Old Dominion Ice Co., which in turn owns the common stock and $446,000 preferred stock of the Richmond Ice Co., as part of its expansion program to acquire controlling interests in operating companies in the food and allied industries. The Allentown Dairy corporation, Pennsylvania, recently was taken over.

New bond offerings tomorrow will include $3,000,000 City of Detroit, Mich., 4 per cent bonds, priced to yield about 3.85 per cent, and $3,000,000 Continental Terminals, Inc., 6½ per cent convertible debentures, offered on a 100 per cent basis.

Approximately $16,200,000 of new bonds and common and preferred stocks will be issued in connection with the organization, announced by the United Public Service Corporation for the purpose of placing under one company 37 public utility operating companies in the middle West and South.

The first three months of 1927 apparently maintained the profitable activity which the steel industry enjoyed last year, says a review by Dominick & Dominick, investment bankers. Several of the larger steel companies which produce about 75 per cent of the total finished steel shipments, show net earnings last year of $184,000,000, against about $140,000,000 in 1925. At the close of the year it was felt that no marked increase in activity in steel could be expected in 1927. At the end of March, however, the U. S. Steel Corporation was operating virtually at capacity and the industry as a whole at about 85 per cent.

BONDS UNDERGO QUIET AND SPIRITED PERIODS

Week's Trading Quicken, With Cut in British Discount Rate.

NEW ISSUES IN DEMAND

New York, April 24 (By the Associated Press).—Last week in the bond market was divided into two distinct periods, one of extreme dullness and, later, one of decided activity. The point at which the trading became animated coincided with the announcement of a reduction from 5 to 4½ per cent in the discount rate of the Bank of England, with its indication of an indefinite continuation of the present era of easy money rates.

Prices, however, responded rather sluggishly to the increased dealings, indicating that much of the buying was of a semi-speculative character. Indeed, the demand was centered largely in issues which, for one reason or another, seemed to hold out promise of later profits. Convertible bonds and mortgages of high yield or low price were at the hub of the week-end's revival of interest.

Predictions of an immediate cut in the discount rate of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, following the announcement of the change in London, were not borne out, as the local change of 4 per cent was maintained. Observers of the more conservative order were inclined to believe that a reduction here is unlikely until there is a stronger probability that it would encourage business expansion and not speculation in securities.

New issues, while reaching a less formidable aggregate than in the week before, were sufficient to afford considerable competition to the demand for listed bonds of a gilt-edged investment character. The total of offerings was slightly more than $108,000,000, which compares with approximately $182,000,000 in the preceding week and $140,000,000 for the corresponding week of 1926.

Numerous new foreign issues are in the offing, including the loan of $80,000,000 or so to the Polish republic, which has been under negotiation for some time. The Polish loan, however, is not expected to reach the market for two or three weeks. Other new issues in prospect include one of $2,000,000 for the Bank of Iceland and another of $10,000,000 for the Finland State Mortgage Bank. The latter, it is understood, will be sold privately. The Venetian Land Credit Institute and the State of Queensland also are seeking advances in the New York market.

The enormous growth of American investment abroad has occasioned comment for some little time. Bonds which only a few years ago were unknown to American securities buyers are now listed with the popular issues. The increase in the demand for these obligations has been due to their high yield, as compared with similar issues of domestic origin, but as the knowledge of the difference in the rate of payment has spread, the yield of foreign bonds has tended to move gradually downward.

The enthusiasm for the Italian Public Utility Credit 7s, which burst into a wave of heavy buying a week ago, apparently died down somewhat, but the price held steady within a fraction of par, while predictions that the issue is to be called at 105 on the next interest date have not been confirmed, the report appeared to have sufficient foundation for heavy accumulation, and sales during the abnormal activity of the bonds represented more than a sixth of the entire issue.

UTILITIES AGAIN LEAD WEEK'S CURB TRADING

Prices of Oil Shares Move in Opposite Directions; Other Industrials Firm.

SOME MOTORS ARE SOFT

New York, April 24 (By the Associated Press).—Trading was in unusually large volume in the curb market last week, but prices generally showed only nominal changes. There were numerous new highs for the year, or longer, in several groups, but they were partly discounted by sharp declines here and there and by the usual realising toward the end of the week.

Public Utilities were again out in the front rank, moving forward steadily in response to favorable reports of 1926 earnings. A few new high records were established in this division.

Prices in the oil group moved in opposite directions, pipe line shares selling up to new peaks, while the producing issues steadily lost ground. Vacuum oil was an exception, gaining intermittently throughout the week.

Firmness on the whole, attended the other branches of the industrial division, notably as regards typewriter, coal and sugar shares. New tops were set by these and by the usual realising toward the middle of the week, when they met with some selling pressure.

A number of soft spots were in evidence here and there, especially among the motor issues. Although a few displayed spurts of strength, most of them closed the week with net losses.

Trading in bonds was reasonably active, but prices showed only narrow changes.

Sixteen issues admitted to trading included common stocks of the American Piano Co. and Columbia Steel Corporation; the new common and preferred shares of the National Lead Co.; the new $50,000,000 Shell Union Coal Corporation 5 per cent bonds, and the 7 per cent bonds of the Mortgage Bank of Bogota, republic of Columbia.

$500,000 FOR FLOOD VICTIMS RAISED IN 3 HOURS BY RED CROSS

Contributions Follow Broadcasting Nation-Wide Appeal for Relief Funds.

WILL EXCEED QUOTAS,
MANY CHAPTERS SAY

Capital Expected to Donate
$45,000 to Aid Sufferers in Area.

Three hours after the American Red Cross broadcast a nation-wide appeal for a $5,000,000 fund for the relief of sufferers in the Mississippi flood disaster, more than $500,000 was contributed, it was announced at Red Cross headquarters here last night.

Red Cross chapters throughout the country were given their quotas Saturday night. Immediately messages came back from scores of them: "tating that their quotas would be exceeded, Red Cross officials said. Many chapters telegraphed that their communities would more than double the amounts requested, it was announced.

The District of Columbia's quota is $45,000. Victor E. Dwyer, of the Second National Bank, has been appointed chairman of the District relief committee. Already he has received many substantial contributions and members of the committee are confident the $45,000 will be raised without difficulty.

The quota for Montgomery county, Md., has been set at $1,500. A meeting of the executive committee of the Montgomery County chapter will be held soon to formulate plans for raising the fund. Mrs. J. Somerville Dawson is secretary of the chapter.

George E. Scott, of Chicago, a member of the central committee of the American Red Cross and one of the war-time leaders of the Red Cross, will be in charge of the national headquarters of the Red Cross here during the absence of Acting Chairman James L. Fieser in the Mississippi river flood area.

Reaches Memphis Today.

Mr. Fieser, with Secretary of Commerce Hoover, will arrive in Memphis this morning to expand the Red Cross organization on the ground and to make a detailed survey of the necessities of the situation.

Mr. Scott will arrive in this city this morning and will immediately take up his duties at national headquarters. He was general manager of the Red Cross under the war council during the world war. He is vice president of the American Steel Foundries Co.

Messages telling briefly of the havoc wrought by the floods and of the relief work being done by the Red Cross poured into Red Cross headquarters all day yesterday and last night.

A telegram from J. C. Gillison, of the Lake Village Red Cross chapter, Arkansas, said:

"We are bringing 300 refugees from Greenville across the river on boats and sending them on a special train to Vicksburg. We are feeding them and giving them necessary clothing."

A message from St. Louis said Kathryn Monroe will fly from Fort Smith to Pine Bluff, Ark., to take

Chicago, April 22.—"How," asked Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundesen in his weekly health bulletin, "should you be dressed to get the best effects of sunshine?"

And his answer will doubtless be approved at the city's bathing beaches this summer.

"With as little on as the law allows, sunlight must fall directly on the bare skin to get the best results."

Dr. Bundesen suggests that with the proper health regime it would not be so terribly difficult to live to be a hundred. His recommendations for those aiming at the century mark are these: "Get plenty of fresh air, day and night; get plenty of sunshine; be moderate in eating; take suitable exercise, plenty of sleep and don't worry."

charge of relief work. "Refugees are arriving in southeast Arkansas from Greenville, Miss., and serious situation is expected on the Arkansas side of the river," the message said.

Messages Tell of Work.

The following report came to national headquarters yesterday from Margaret E. Butler, Red Cross worker at Natchez, Miss., dated last Saturday night:

"At Marksville, has 500 refugee families, with five to six to a family. Feeding 150 families now. Natchez refugee camp open today with 50 women and children. Expect levee break across river from here. In that event estimate 5,000 will come to this camp."

DR. SAYS MASKS MCARD TO HOLD UP SALARY OF EDSON

Says Civil Service Examiner's Appointment Does Not Conform With Law.

BETTER GOVERNMENT
LEAGUE RAPS COOLIDGE

President Shows Ignorance of Personnel Administration, Its Statement Declares.

Simultaneously with a public statement yesterday of the Better Government league, criticizing presidential appointment of Dr. H. A. Edson as chief examiner of the United States civil service commission, Dr. Ellery C. Stowell, president of the league, said he had asked Controller General McCard to disallow the salary of Dr. Edson on the ground that he was not appointed in conformity with provisions of the law.

The action is the latest in the league's protest which began with presidential appointment of Dr. Pay C. Brown, former assistant secretary of the league, to succeed the late Herbert E. Filer, and whose failure to accept it resulted in President Coolidge's appointment of Dr. Edson.

Termining the matter an "illuminating episode," the league, in its statement, declared President Coolidge shows ignorance of personnel administration and that the civil service commission, as far as could be learned, "followed its policy of deep silence and hands off."

Citing the importance of the position, its incumbent seeing that selection for vacancies in 400,000 positions are properly conducted, the statement asserted that while it was always filled through appointment by the President and Senate confirmation, nevertheless authority for this rested on two opinions interpreting civil service law in a doubtful way in view of similar laws.

of onrushing flood waters "to get to the levee immediately" were issued by Maj. J. C. Allen today.

"The wall of water going south is very dangerous and unless people move to the levees quickly they will be drowned," Maj. Allen said in asking the Associated Press to broadcast warnings of the danger.

A Sabbath scene of death and desolation was presented today over more than 9,000 square miles of the richest lands in Mississippi and Arkansas as the flood waters of half a dozen mighty streams continued their relentless flow to the sea.

At least 100 human lives had been snuffed out by the swirling, plunging waters since the rivers started tearing from their beds three weeks ago and the fate of other hundreds was left in doubt.

Hour by hour, as the walls of water moved south, more thousands were made homeless; additional crops were destroyed and live stock, homes, barns and property of almost every description were swept along in the maelstrom.

Urgent warnings to the people in the lower Mississippi delta to flee for their lives from the Mississippi and waters sweeping down toward Vicksburg were issued during the day by army engineers and the exodus began before nightfall.

Far across country in Lafayette county, Ark., others were moving out to high lands before the waters of the river which broke through the levee at Pindley bend early in the day, with the prospect that an additional 20,000 acres of land would be inundated.

Backwaters Are Spreading.

Southward in Louisiana the effects of the flood were beginning to be felt as backwaters of smaller streams emptying into the Mississippi encroached upon the lowlands. Many inhabitants were being driven from their homes in Concordia parish and every ferry carrying refugees from Vidalia, La., carried refugees.

Below New Orleans, where yesterday the molasses tanker inspector caused a levee crevasse by ramming the bank, strenuous efforts were being made to prevent a serious break, but water seeping through where the tanker lay the hole in an effort to block it was beginning to flood the marshlands near Diamond.

Save two danger points, one at Fair's Landing, Ark., 30 miles south of Helena, and the other at Brunswick Circle, 10 miles north of Vicksburg, the Mississippi levees appeared to be holding well all along the line. Army engineers dispatched crews with sand and rock to the danger points.

More Towns Flooded.

As the waters rushing through the Mississippi break at Stopp Landing, above Greenville, moved today down the delta to rejoin the river at Vicksburg, two new towns were flooded. Arcola and Hollandale. Ten thousand refugees sought safety on the levee of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad to the east.

Flooded waters from the Arkansas river were moving into north Louisiana and it was estimated that the flow to be a rate of 11 miles a day. This flow is expected to continue until the flood is absorbed by the Ouachita and Red rivers and carried back into the Mississippi again.

With approximately 100,000 now homeless, the need of food for the refugees was becoming a stupendous one. The immediate work was that of moving the refugees from the temporary camps to safer ones in the high lands, and for this work 32 big steamers have been engaged.

So far as the army is concerned, the refugees were becoming a stupendous one. The immediate work was that of moving the refugees from the temporary camps to safer ones in the high lands, and for this work 32 big steamers have been engaged.

These people in some cases have been without food and water for 24 hours or longer, the statement said, adding that unless many boats and all the motorboats were furnished by the people of the country many human lives could not be saved.

Infantry Unit in China Must Study Language

Trouble in China has emphasized the need for American officers to be able to converse in Chinese, and, according to present instruction, all officers joining the Fifteenth U. S. Infantry at Tientsin, China, will be placed under instruction for ten hours a week for six weeks, and after that, for six hours a week until an outlined course is completed.

Following this instruction, which will last about a year, they will be required to attend two or three instruction periods a week during the remainder of their stay in China. Officers who progress beyond the prescribed standard may take bi-monthly tests and, if successful, will be excused from formal instruction periods.

It was explained at the War Department that the purpose of teaching the language to the officers is to enable them to run international trains where contact with the Chinese is frequent and conversation often necessary; to command outposts where officers frequently have to deal with organized or disorganized Chinese troops; to converse with inhabitants for information of the kind required in a campaign, and to check approximately the work of Chinese interpreters.

STAND ON ULTIMATUM
AIDS PEACE IN CHINA

Chen's work as foreign minister has been due to the fact that Wu declined to exercise the role which he occupied because of differences with the radicals in the Kuomintang. Chen's position all along has been that of acting foreign minister, while Wu's role has been that of foreign minister, who delegated his duties to Chen to perform. The return of Wu to his post will not mean a break between Wu and Chen, it is explained here.

With the temporary lull in the situation, attention here is attracted to the curious trend of developments whereby Great Britain and powers who are members of the League of Nations and presumed to be pledged to peace are advocating war measures, if not actual war which may lead to unthinkable consequences, while the United States, not a member of the League of Nations, has assumed the burden of preventing war and maintaining peace.

And an equally curious feature commented upon yesterday is the fact that America's restraining influence in the present crisis seems to have been the only factor which has prevented the powers from precipitating another war, confederation before ten years have elapsed since the end of the world war, which statesmen have so frequently and solemnly characterized as the last war which civilized nations would permit.

Some diplomats say frankly that it would have required only a little more of the "blundering aggressiveness" of certain of the powers in the Far East to ignite a conflagration involving 450,000,000 Chinese, to say nothing of the millions of Europeans and Americans involved. Why the League of Nations has closed its eyes to this war danger and given America the task of holding the line in check is another question which remains unanswered here.

M'whille, there was comment yesterday on the fact that the European powers appear to have been saved—at least temporarily—by America from committing the same sort of blunders which characterized their dealings with Turkey and Russia. The powers united military forces in Turkey to support an overwhelming Greek army in carrying out a program of international force. The Turks, stripped of fighting units by the treaty of Versailles, and seemingly at the mercy of the aggressors, rallied to the battle cry to defend their homelands against foreigners, and the result was the forces in Turkey which the allies sought to crush rose to power, swept the invaders from the sea and formed the nationalist government they possess today.

The cause for this devastating war, which was the British report that Christians were being massacred by the Turks, turned out to be a hoax, according to the official investigation of the interallied commission, which report incidentally has never been given to the public. It is partly because of this that some of the reports emanating from Shanghai are scrutinized very closely.

With respect to soviet Russia, the employment of military force in support of the white Russians had precisely the opposite effect from that intended. Interallied forces attacked Russia via Siberia, via European points to the north and south and contributed untold thousands of rifles, arms, ammunition and supplies to the Russian forces seeking to wrest control from the Reds. But the cry of foreign aggression and the threats which were implied against homelands in Russia increased the strength of the comparatively untrained Reds to such an extent that the interallied program collapsed before it was launched.

Thus, in Turkey and in Russia, the elements which foreign military aggression sought to destroy were made masters of the situation in each country. With these object lessons fresh in their minds, some of the diplomats here maintain that foreign aggression against any group in China, especially the radicals of the Kuomintang, will inevitably mean that all other Chinese groups will sink into insignificance before the group or groups made the objects of foreign attacks. In other words, the surest way to put the Chinese radicals and anti-foreign elements in complete control is for the allies to attempt to solve the present problem by war measures, sealing up ports, bombardments and shrapnel.

JAPAN'S MORATORIUM IS REFUSED FORMOSA

21-Day Limit to Other Colonies; Shops Open, but Business Drops.

Tokyo, April 24 (By A. P.).—The cabinet has decided to extend the 21-day moratorium, declared last Friday, to all colonies except Formosa.

The moratorium apparently is not extending to the people who are conducting business as usual, although there has been a tremendous drop in trade. All shops and stores remain open. It is understood that the post of minister of foreign affairs in the cabinet has been offered to Baron Kikuchi, who is at present ambassador to France.

The Bank of Japan, in a statement issued today, says it intends to assist all banks during the present financial situation.

Osaka, Japan, April 24 (By A. P.).—The moratorium is seriously hampering business here. Bankers are endeavoring to minimize its effects and have agreed to permit overdrafts in responsible quarters and will make short term loans. The exchange banks will pour export bills in a like manner. The Osaka stock exchange and the cotton yarn exchange have decided to close during the period of the moratorium.

Feel Tired and Languid?

To Be Fit There Must Be Good Elimination of the Blood Impurities

ALWAYS tired, lame and achy? Sure your kidneys are working right?

When the kidneys act sluggishly waste impurities are apt to remain in the blood and cause many unpleasant symptoms. One feels dull and languid with sometimes nagging backache, drowsy headaches and sensations of dizziness. A common warning that the kidneys are not acting right is scanty or burning excretions.

If your kidneys are sluggish, help them with a diuretic.
Use Doan's Pills. They are praised the world over. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. C. A. Curry, Graduate Nurse, 802 Maple St., Zelwere sluggish and the scrotopores were scanty and burned in passing. My back ached and I had dizzy sensations.

Doan's Pills proved effective and I continued their use until I was a well man again. I am always glad to recommend Doan's Pills."

CYRUS H. MCCORMICK,
HARVESTER HEAD, WEDS

New Hampshire Woman Bride of Chicago Magnate Since Last Friday.

NOW ON WAY TO EUROPE

Special to The Washington Post.

Chicago, April 24.—Announcement was made here tonight of the marriage last Friday of Cyrus H. McCormick, chairman of the board of directors of the International Harvester Co., and Miss Alice M. Hoyt, of Dublin, N. H. The ceremony was performed at the country home of the bride's niece, Mrs. Edric Weld, of Brookline, Mass. There were present at the wedding no guests except members of the immediate families of the bride and groom, including Mrs. Edward Mackey, sister of the bride, and Mr. McCormick's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus McCormick Jr. The Rev. Austin H. Reed officiated.

The newly married couple have already sailed for the continent on their wedding trip. They will be joined later, somewhere abroad, by Mr. McCormick's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus McCormick Jr., and by Gordon McCormick, another son, who is studying architecture at the Beaux Arts in Paris.

On their return to Chicago, they will reside at the McCormick town home and at "Walden," his Lake Forest estate.

Mr. McCormick's first wife, who was Harriet Hammond, died in 1921 after a long illness. Like her husband, she was prominently associated with numerous philanthropic projects. In 1925, Mr. McCormick and his sons, donated $100,000 to the Chicago Y. W. C. A. for a building to be erected in her memory.

Miss Hoyt resided in Chicago. She is a daughter of the late Elizabeth Stetson and Jeremiah P. Hoyt, who came to Chicago in 1843. Charles S. Hoyt is her brother. Both she and Mr. McCormick are beyond middle age.

Cyrus H. McCormick is a brother of Harold McCormick, who married and divorced Edith Rockefeller, and is now the husband of Ganna Walska, opera singer.

On the death of his father, the inventor of the reaping machine that built up the family fortune, he succeeded to the presidency of the McCormick Harvester Machine Co. in 1884, and from 1902 to 1908 was president of the International Harvester Co. Since then he has been chairman of the board of directors.

He was a close friend of the late President Wilson while the latter was at the helm of national affairs. He made a tour of Russia to study the agricultural problems and needs of that country, and was decorated by the President of France with the order of the merit agricole, an honor only conferred on any one except a Frenchman.

DE CARLO OBSERVES 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF WORK AS PRIEST

Pastor Sings Solemn High Mass at Holy Rosary Catholic Church.

APOSTOLIC BLESSING OF POPE SENT BY CABLE

Clergyman Given Automobile by Parishioners; Italian Ambassador Attends Services.

The Rev. Nicholas De Carlo, pastor of the Holy Rosary Catholic church, yesterday sang the solemn high mass which marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. He was assisted by Mgr. Paolo Marini, auditor to the apostolic delegation, as deacon, and the Rev. A. Romeo as subdeacon.

The Rev. F. Lucidi, of Catholic university, preached. He read the following cablegram from Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state, to the Most Rev. P. Fumasoni-Biondi, apostolic delegate to the United States.

"Holy Father sends apostolic blessing to Father De Carlo upon the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination and prays for his continued accomplishment in divine service."

In his sermon, Dr. Lucidi alluded to the uncertainty that may face any priest on the day of his ordination. He said he was called upon to undergo persecution of one sort or another, he said. Many priests in Mexico, some of them far advanced in years, face this prospect now, he declared.

"I send you to be lamb among wolves," said the founder of Christianity," Father Lucidi said.

He enjoined his apostles to be as wise as serpents yet as simple as doves. The Mexican bishops were well advised in concealing themselves prudently and their devotion to their flocks is the sign of their genuine and simple simplicity."

Must Resist Unflinchingly.

Dr. Lucidi declared the obligation to resist unflinchingly the evils of persecution is none the less compelling. He said all Catholics could point with pride to the heroic dignity of the six Mexican archbishops and bishops who arrived in San Antonio as refugees.

The jubilee mass was attended by the Italian Ambassador.

After the mass and a "Te Deum" of thanksgiving, a committee of parishioners in charge of the observance, presented an automobile to Father De Carlo as the gift of the congregation, specially adapted for use in making sick calls, as his parish extends to all Italians in the District.

The presentation address was made by J. Baldoni, chairman of the committee. Father De Carlo accepted the gift and declared that the cooperation of his parishioners was his greatest satisfaction.

An elaborate address of welcome, engraved on parchment by Salvatore Lo Jacomo, was presented to the pastor by the Silver Jubilee club, together with a substantial purse given by members of the congregation and several other valuable gifts of parish associations.

Crank-Handle Blow Fatal; Man Arrested

Two days after his skull was fractured by a blow from a crank handle, George Brown, colored, 28 years old, 1235 Seventh street northwest, died yesterday in Freedmen's hospital. A few hours after the fatal blow, he was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Charles Poole, of the Second precinct, arrested Louis Hopkins, colored, 26 years old, 928 O street northwest, who was charged with the murder of George Brown.

The two men, police say, engaged in an argument in front of Brown's home Friday, which resulted in a fight. Hopkins, police say, fled the scene and has since been in hiding. Coroner J. Ramon Neveit said an inquest will be held probably tomorrow at the District morgue.

Kallipolis Grotto Shows This Week

The Kallipolis grotto will hold three minstrel shows this week to raise funds to send its drum and bugle corps and drill team to the annual grotto convention in Cleveland this summer. The first show will be held tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the grotto temple, 4209 Ninth street northwest.

Tomorrow a show will be given in the ballroom of the Wardman Park hotel. The final performance will be held in the Brightwood Masonic temple Thursday night. The show will be held in the ballroom of the Wardman Park hotel.

Secular League Again Elects T. B. Eckloss

Thomas B. Eckloss was reelected president of the Secular League of Washington for the sixth year at a meeting yesterday afternoon in the club hall, 1008 E street northwest. Following the meeting the league adjourned until the next year.

Linn A. E. Gale was reelected secretary of the league. Other officers elected were Dr. A. Baden, treasurer, and H. W. Selah, Joseph L. Temper, David Eccles, John Bradley, Edward P. Evans, Mrs. Gertrude Evans and Prof. J. W. Nigh, vice presidents.

Woman Hurt in Crash Into 2 Parked Cars

Cecilia Garnett, colored, 42 years old, 2222 Ninth street northwest, was injured yesterday in a traffic collision in front of 2137 Ninth street northwest. She was treated at Freedmen's hospital for body bruises and shock.

The mishap occurred when Henry Jordan, colored, 50 DeRue street northwest, driving an automobile, crashed into two parked cars. Losing control of the car, he ran down the woman. After the mishap, police say, Jordan abandoned the car and fled. He is being sought.

Editorial to Address Fraternity.

Dr. Charles B. Davenport, of Carnegie Institute, New York, will address yesterday in the University club at 8 o'clock, on the "Factors of Heredity and Environment in Criminology."

Must Resist Unflinchingly.

Dr. Lucidi declared the obligation to resist unflinchingly the evils of persecution is none the less compelling.

He said all Catholics could point with pride to the heroic dignity of the six Mexican archbishops and bishops who arrived in San Antonio as refugees.

The jubilee mass was attended by the Italian Ambassador.

After the mass and a "Te Deum" of thanksgiving, a committee of parishioners in charge of the observance, presented an automobile to Father De Carlo as the gift of the congregation, specially adapted for use in making sick calls, as his parish extends to all Italians in the District.

The presentation address was made by J. Baldoni, chairman of the committee. Father De Carlo accepted the gift and declared that the cooperation of his parishioners was his greatest satisfaction.

An elaborate address of welcome, engraved on parchment by Salvatore Lo Jacomo, was presented to the pastor by the Silver Jubilee club, together with a substantial purse given by members of the congregation and several other valuable gifts of parish associations.

WET STAND BY PARTY FATAL, WOMAN SAYS

U. S. Bone Dry Politically, Asserts Democratic Enforcement League Head.

(By the Associated Press.)

Politically the United States is bone dry and it would be folly for any party to nominate a wet candidate for President, said a Democratic speaker at the National Women's Democratic Law Enforcement league, declared yesterday.

"We, as Democratic women," she said, "are trying to arouse our party to this fact. We hold that an examination of the figures of votes in the past shows that the nomination of a wet is suicide. We do not want our party to commit suicide. We believe that as a political issue prohibition enforcement have greater vote-getting capacities than any other. We believe that the party or the candidate that has got back of them in law, we hope that ours will not be the party."

This issue, Mrs. Nicholson explained, will be the dominating topic of discussion at the National Women's Democratic Law Enforcement league conference to be held in Washington in May.

Arguments for and against the plea of Paul du Vernal Barry, patient at St. Elizabeths hospital, for a jury to determine his sanity will be heard this morning by Justice Egidio in circuit court. Barry sued out a writ of habeas corpus and alleged that he was sane and should be released.

The law provides for jury trials in proceedings to commit a person as insane, but, according to Assistant District Attorney Neil Burkshaw, who will oppose the release of Barry, there is no provision whatever in the law for a jury trial to determine the sanity of a person who is seeking to be released. The release of a person from St. Elizabeths hospital or from any other place of confinement is a matter of discretion which rests entirely with the justice before whom that person is brought, according to Mr. Burkshaw.

Barry was committed December 15, 1923, following his acquittal on a charge of first-degree murder in connection with the shooting of Tyler B. Lawler, a street car conductor, during a hold-up on the Brookland car line on February 29, 1922. His counsel will contend that he is entitled to a jury trial as a matter of right.

The partnership of man and woman in the affairs of the world was the Creator's ideal when he stated "It is not good that man should be alone," the Rev. Ellis C. Primm, pastor of the Second Baptist church, stated in speaking on "Modern Women" at the service held last night.

To achieve the best results, man is compelled to return to God's ideal, he stated. Women will continue to share more and more in the affairs of the world, and to extend her influence, he predicted. Dr. Primm denied that modes of dress were indicative of the character of an age. Thought characterizes an age, he stated.
